

The Discipler's Commentary

Fill-in Outline for the Disciple

Luke 1

1:1-4 – Luke's introduction to his gospel: he was Theophilus's _____

Key words: "...having investigated everything _____”

Purpose for writing: so that Theophilus may know “the _____”

A lesson: In order to know the exact truth, we must study _____

1:5-25 – The account of the priest Zacharias's encounter with the angel _____

Gabriel announces to Zacharias that he will be the father of _____

Zacharias and Elizabeth will give birth to a son by _____

Zacharias is disciplined by Gabriel because he requested _____

A lesson: Asking God for a sign instead of trusting by faith may result in _____

1:26-38 – The account of Mary's encounter with the angel _____

Gabriel announces to Mary that she will give birth to Jesus, the “ _____”

Luke makes it very clear that Mary, though engaged to Joseph, is a _____

Mary will give birth to a son by _____

A lesson: With God, _____

1:39-56 – The account of Mary's encounter with Elizabeth and Mary's _____

A lesson: Sometimes wonderful news from God can result in joyful _____

1:57-79 – The account of the birth of John the Baptist and Zacharias's _____

A lesson: When we are faithful and obedient to God, _____

1:80 – The account of the life of John the Baptist before he became an official _____

A lesson: Those who are wholly devoted to God do not necessarily lead an _____