1. (1:1-23) The biblical view of the world is through the sons of [________________ ; _______________], and [________________].

2. (1:24-54) The genealogy of Abraham reminds us that God has a plan for [______________________________] of the earth.

3. (2) The genealogy of Judah provides examples as to the consequences for [______________________________].

4. (3) The genealogy of David funnels our attention to the [______________________________].

5. (4-8) The genealogies of Israel reflect the changing [______________________________] conditions over time in both the land and the people.

6. (9) This genealogy documents the return from the [______________________________].