1. (v.1-6) In the Last Days, the wrong application of ______________ will lead many astray.

2. (v.7-11) We must be __________ to __________ faithfully even when we are wronged. We must trust that the injustices and inequities of this present life will probably go ______________ in this life. This is why we look forward to Christ’s __________, when the Judge will __________ all things.

3. (v.12) We are called not just to keep our speech pure where fellow __________ are concerned, but with __________.

4. (v.13-18) The more consistent our faithfulness in times of __________, the better the chances it will translate into the kind of faith we’ll need in times of __________ and __________.

5. (v.19-20) Regardless of how bad the ______________ – prison, in the midst of a shipwreck, persecution, etc. – the apostles always realized that this very situation was an opportunity to ______________ for the Kingdom.

Overall Application:

- (v.1-11) Be __________ and __________, even if you are wronged.
- (v.12) Remain __________ in speech.
- (v.13-18) Remain __________, continuing to confess one’s sins.
- (v.19-20) Be __________ in winning souls for the kingdom.