

Walk With the Word

Deuteronomy 12-26

The Prohibition Against the Occult (Deut. 18:9-14)

Definition of Occult:

1. Communication with the dead or with _____ .
2. Seeking knowledge or guidance from the _____ .
3. Broader: Anything related to magic or _____ .

The Unseen Domain of the Occult (Ephesians 6:10-12)

1. The dimension or realm of spirits, angels and _____ .
2. The domain from where Satan _____ .
3. Also referred to as part of the _____ .

The Prohibition Against Seeking Out the Occult (Deut 18:9-14)

1. Called by God “detestable” or an _____ .
2. Violation punishable by _____ .
3. To participate is an act of _____ .

The Forbidden Practices of the Occult (examples) (Deut 18:9-14)

1. “...pass through the fire...”; i.e., _____ .
2. Divination: divining the future; determining one’s _____ .
3. Witchcraft: the seeking of personal _____ .
4. Interpreter of omens: foretelling _____ .
5. Sorcerer: a master of magic arts, potions and _____ .
6. Spell casting: one who uses spells, curses and _____ .
7. Medium: one who communicates with _____ .
8. Spiritist: one who communicates with _____ .
9. Necromancer: one who calls up _____ .

The Consequences for Adopting Occult Practices

1. The loss of God’s protection, provision and _____ .
2. God’s justified wrath and _____ .
3. An inability to escape from the powers of _____ .

Contemporary American Practices

To review this message after completing the weekly reading of
Deut 12-26, go to www.walkwiththeword.org/Audio/AudioStudies.html

Walk With the Word

Deuteronomy 12-26

The Prohibition Against the Occult (Deut. 18:9-14)

Definition of Occult:

1. Communication with the dead or with _____ .
2. Seeking knowledge or guidance from the _____ .
3. Broader: Anything related to magic or _____ .

The Unseen Domain of the Occult (Ephesians 6:10-12)

1. The dimension or realm of spirits, angels and _____ .
2. The domain from where Satan _____ .
3. Also referred to as part of the _____ .

The Prohibition Against Seeking Out the Occult (Deut 18:9-14)

1. Called by God “detestable” or an _____ .
2. Violation punishable by _____ .
3. To participate is an act of _____ .

The Forbidden Practices of the Occult (examples) (Deut 18:9-14)

1. “...pass through the fire...”; i.e., _____ .
2. Divination: divining the future; determining one’s _____ .
3. Witchcraft: the seeking of personal _____ .
4. Interpreter of omens: foretelling _____ .
5. Sorcerer: a master of magic arts, potions and _____ .
6. Spell casting: one who uses spells, curses and _____ .
7. Medium: one who communicates with _____ .
8. Spiritist: one who communicates with _____ .
9. Necromancer: one who calls up _____ .

The Consequences for Adopting Occult Practices

1. The loss of God’s protection, provision and _____ .
2. God’s justified wrath and _____ .
3. An inability to escape from the powers of _____ .

Contemporary American Practices

To review this message after completing the weekly reading of
Deut 12-26, go to www.walkwiththeword.org/Audio/AudioStudies.html