

Scripture Reading for Matthew 27:27-56
Psalm 22 (selected verses)

My God, my God, why have You forsaken me? Far from my deliverance are the words of my groaning.

O my God, I cry by day, but You do not answer; and by night, but I have no rest.

Yet You are holy, O You who are enthroned upon the praises of Israel...

But I am a worm and not a man, a reproach of men and despised by the people.

All who see me sneer at me; they separate with the lip, they wag the head, saying, "Commit yourself to the LORD; let Him deliver him; let Him rescue him, because He delights in him...."

For dogs have surrounded me; a band of evildoers has encompassed me; they pierced my hands and my feet.

I can count all my bones. They look, they stare at me; they divide my garments among them, and for my clothing they cast lots.

But You, O LORD, be not far off; O You my help, hasten to my assistance....

I will tell of Your name to my brethren; in the midst of the assembly I will praise You...

The afflicted will eat and be satisfied; those who seek Him will praise the LORD. Let your heart live forever!

All the ends of the earth will remember and turn to the LORD, and all the families of the nations will worship before You.

For the kingdom is the LORD's and He rules over the nations.
