

Scripture Reading for Matthew 28:16-20
Isaiah 52:6-15

Therefore My people shall know My name; therefore in that day I am the one who is speaking, “Here I am.”

How lovely on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who announces peace and brings good news of happiness, who announces salvation, and say to Zion, “Your God reigns!”

Listen! Your watchmen lift up their voices, they shout joyfully together; for they will see with their own eyes when the LORD restores Zion.

Break forth, shout joyfully together, you waste places of Jerusalem; for the LORD has comforted His people, He has redeemed Jerusalem.

The LORD has bared His holy arm in the sight of all the nations, that all the ends of the earth may see the salvation of our God.

Go, depart, go out from there, touch nothing unclean; go out of the midst of her, purify yourselves, you who carry the vessels of the LORD.

But you will not go out in haste, nor will you go as fugitives; for the LORD will go before you, and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.

Behold, My servant will prosper, He will be high and lifted up and greatly exalted.

Just as many were astonished at you, My people, so His appearance was marred more than any man and His form more than the sons of men.

Thus He will sprinkle many nations, kings will shut their mouths on account of Him; for what had not been told them they will see, and what they had not heard they will understand.

Through the New Testament
Part 6 – Proving Jesus Is the Messiah (the Christ)
“Proving That the Apostles are the Messiah’s Messengers”
Matthew 28:16-20

Matthew’s emphasis on Jesus’ parting words:

The assurance the apostles have of Jesus’ _____ (v. 18)

The authority the apostles have for _____ (v. 19)

The promise the disciples have of Jesus’ _____ (v. 20)

Conclusions:

1. The apostles are the Messiah’s true _____.
2. True disciples of Jesus are made only thru _____.

Closing Chorus

The LORD bless thee and keep thee,
The LORD make His face to shine upon thee,
And be gracious unto thee, and be gracious unto thee.
The LORD lift up His countenance
Upon thee and give thee peace.
